

Sponsored by:

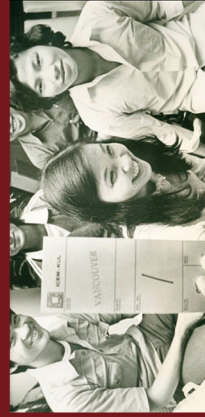

Asian Canadian &
Asian Migration Studies
The university of british columbia

UBC THEATRE & FILM

FIPR 469a
ASIAN CANADIAN
FILM FESTIVAL
2016

UBC ROGERS MULTICULTURAL FILM PROGRAM PRESENTS:

Pho: Vietnamese History in a Bowl

7:40 mins

Where does Pho come from and what is it's importance? This film explores the history, politics and identity of this famous Vietnamese dish.

Made By: Shaina Somers and Helen Le

Lost

9:34 mins

Two girls go abroad to spread new pages of their lives. What will they do after the experience?

Made By: Zhihui Zhao and Meng Xie

Rahnama

5:28 min

Featuring the many celebrations that make up Noruz (New Year) in Vancouver, a student leader recounts how Persian-Canadian culture and family make a difference in her life.

Made By: Shirin Eshghi

Rail Road

8:40 mins

A mysterious jade pendant appears to Phillip after one drunken night at the rail road. As he begins to experience its strange effects, he attempts to understand where the jade pendant comes from and what it means to him.

Made by: Mary Chen, Michael Nguyen, Alyssa Sy de Jesus, Amanda Wan

Rich Yet Poor

6:00 mins

A film about economic inequality, social injustice and cost of housing in (beautiful) Vancouver, Canada.

Made by: Atieh Yekta

The Vancouverite Cuisine

9:33 mins

In a city as multicultural as Vancouver it's only reasonable to expect its food culture to be as diverse as its demographic. Explore the rise of Vancouver's very own food culture from a new perspective.

Made By: Yoon Ah Kim, Rachel Yang, Jimmy Feng

Under Fire

10 mins

An inside look at the secret methods of roasting a Chinese-style pig, its unexpected history in Vancouver, and how we understand Chinese Canadian cuisine.

Made by: Christy Fong and Denise Fong

Where I'm Grounded

9 mins

How does the present depend on the past? Three generations of Chinese Canadians explore how they forge relationships through their family history, and offer insight into their hopes for the future of these stories

Made by: Angela Ho and Tyler Mark.

Wind / Feng

8:13 Mins

UBC graduate Ashley Yang and her father don't always get along, but they have at least one thing in common. What's not said in the family winds up hurting their relationship.

Made by: Katie Fung and Jane Shi

The Battle Hymn of the Tiger Cubs

8:50 mins

Follow three members of UBCA Cappella's Undeclared Majors' as they talk about the struggles of Asian parenting and their appreciation towards music.

Made By: Valerie Djuhari

